

THE FISHHOOK FLEA

The Fishhook Flea is 1cm long and clogs up nets and fishing lines. This causes major problems in the fishing industry. They multiply rapidly and are not nearly as nutritious as other things in the bodies of water. The only way to prevent the spread of this creature is to wash the things that were in the infested water.